B a b y L o v e

I could cry in your arms all night as I keep on this fight
I just wanna kick and scream I just want you to hold me
I know, I can tell that you can see This one is all about me
You say we should take some time I say baby, babe

There's a world I'm dreamin' of where I've found truth
In the world I'm dreamin' of I've made it through But the world I'm dreamin' of was built with you
My Babylove

You say you can't give what I need You say I need to be free
You say, search you somewhere else You say, find this by yourself
I say, it's not that you are wrong But I say, don't leave me alone
You can't drop me from the sky And expect that I'll just fly

Maybe I'm a soldier And maybe I'm a cryin' shame
Maybe we'll get older And struggle with the same old game
But maybe I'm a sadness to you
Maybe I'm a sadness to you
My babylove

This is when I need you more than ever, don't walk out that door
I am trying hard to see Baby, don't give up on me
I know this is mine to do And I know I can make it through
If you promise to hold my hand I promise that I will stand
I promise that I will stand

I know we've been through it. You & I, what a hassle You were a broken child. I was raised in a castle where there were birds chirping and fairies all around watching after me so then... who are we?

Hold on to the meaning of the silent moments
Hold on to the meaning of a broken romance Hold on to the pieces of my heart when I first said...
"rest your head with mine"

'cause if you're staying then I could take your world of broken dreams and if you're praying then I could hold your hand, love, as you plead and if I'm strong enough, then I could walk away, and I'd just say Goodbye... Okay

I spent all our time lamenting your childhood and what it's made of you and what you've made of me and even if I try I cannot really make myself believe you'd change... enough... for me

Who am I to say after love, after all that this is not the way that I find what I want And I have plagued you with my tryings-to-move-on, and I have failed and you have longed for my whole love and now you're gone, I understand

Baby I gotta get me away from here Lately I've started to pray to get outta here Somewhere deep down I've found the need to run away from just 'bout everything so maybe I can be something better

Maybe you will find me callin' out maybe I'll be finally crawlin' out
Maybe I'll be on my feet again
Maybe I will find myself somehow
Away from you

I can't go slow enough away from here
I can't be whole enough if I stay here
Somewhere deep down I can't let go
Of all the things I even know
I need to leave. Someone help me

Baby as I am runnin' away from here
I'm hopin' that I'll become so strong and clear
You know I wish that I had had the strength
To leave you without leavin' everything
But maybe I can be something better

Maybe I'll be standin' in the end Maybe I can stand up on my own
Maybe I can be okay alone
Maybe I'll be on my feet again
Maybe I will find myself somehow
Away from you
